Welcome to our world of learners...

A WARM WELCOME TO QUEENS' COLLEGE

Dear Parent,

Greetings!

Welcome to Queens College!

Every new session ushers in new hope, new aspirations, new goals, new dreams and lot of energy and determination.

I remember a very well-known quote by Swami Vivekananda, " Education is the manifestation of perfection already in man". We at Queens are continually striving to bring out this perfection which is already there in our children.

Our curriculum is built around the idea of development of mind (intellectual development), body (physical development) and soul (spiritual, emotional and social development)

We follow student-centric methods as an integral part of the pedagogy that includes experiential learning, participative learning, and problem-solving methodologies leading to the holistic development of students

We believe that our students should be prepared to be self directed, lifelong learners and responsible decision makers while solving problems in our multicultural ever-changing world. It is our responsibility to nurture every learner, help them to appreciate our diversity, care for others, the environment and become global citizens. Most importantly we believe in vibrant and conducive learning environment.

Our school is equipped with best of the infrastructure and facilities that are required for overall development of students in academics, sports and cultural fields.

We also believe that our parents are our strength. Parents involvement and participation in their child's education helps in enhancing performance and building a strong parent- teacher and student bond. We encourage open and constructive communication with parents and all stakeholders.

VISION

The school has a vision of giving to the society good human beings who are learners, responsible and balanced individuals, having a global outlook.

MISSION

To create a vibrant & friendly environment that promotes creativity, problem solving, logical thinking and self reliance. We aim to nurture young minds bloom by developing confidence, communication skills and sensitivity towards the environment.

PASTORAL CARE OF THE YOUNG QUEENS

We believe in laying a strong foundation for the young learners to make them sensitive about their ownself and the surrounding.

*I love the school morning assembly.
Learning is fun and playful.
The motivation and appreciation that my teachers give is remarkable.
All this keeps us going. (Ifra Chara—III)*

WE CARE, WE SHARE, FOR THE FUTURE WE PREPARE

Everyday counts so we cater in a wide variety....endless range of experience ... treasure the bag full of memories.

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

Our students are enriched in group activities. Sharing strengthens their knowledge and confidence. They adapt to soften their approach and train themselves to weave better public relations.

Educating Students for Success in A Changing World
We promise to perform the best and our students fulfil our dreams to success with the untiring efforts and dedication of our mentors.

We have been successful in maintained our academic records on the higher end. We offer a wide variety of subjects options to our Student to fulfil their dreams.

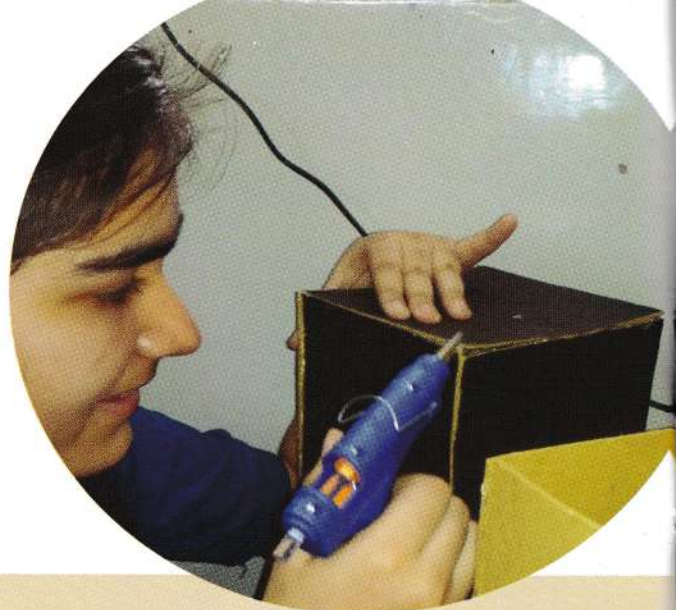

DISCOVER MORE AVENUES

Exposure creates inquisitiveness among the young minds to explore .
Our students explore their strength to identify their future goal.
The practical strategies make long lasting impressions of learning.

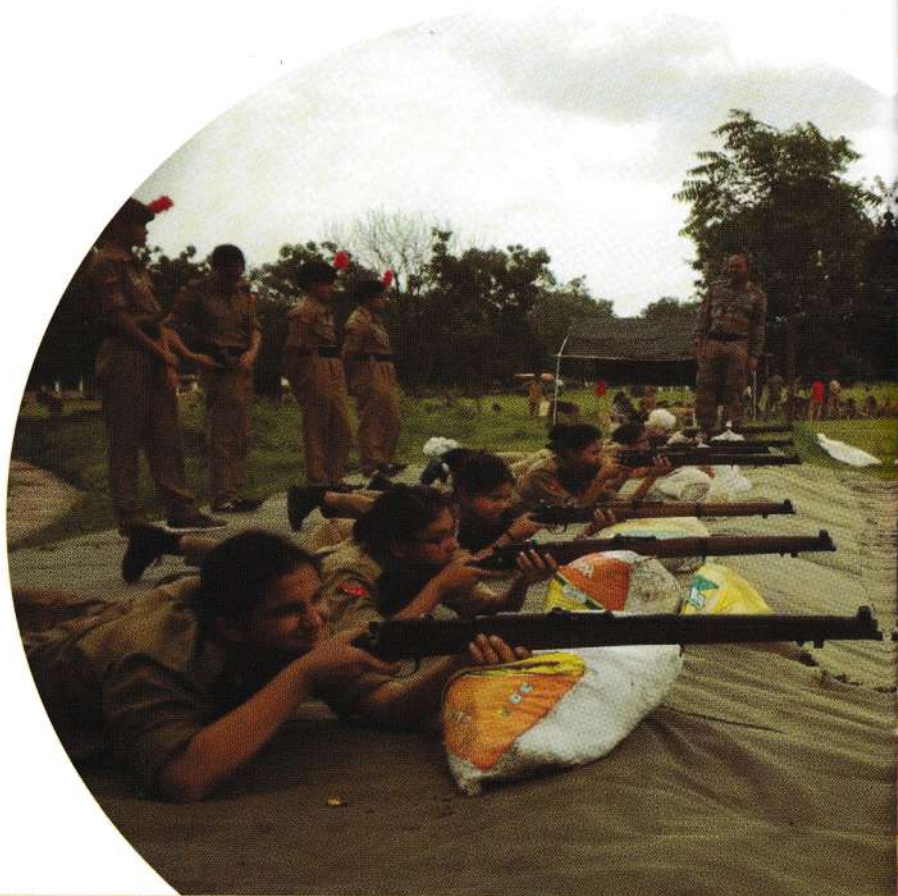

Self confidence, good communication skills.....
At Queens, we develop a logical thinking in today's chaotic world.
Queens has instilled in me positivity, truth, courage and responsibility for all my actions.
Urvi Holkar (Ex-Queen)

WIDEN THE HORIZONS WITH EXPERIENTIAL LEARNING

Field visits, educational tours, hands on session and other experiential activities not only raises an interest to explore one's potential but also creates a vision for future goals.

*Queens develops student efficacy creating a foundation for a successful career. Over the years it has grown phenomenally . I owe a great deal to this institution and the for the meticulous carving of students. In addition to academics Queens provide ample opportunities for extracurricular development. Spoorti Sharma (Parent)

ENRICHMENT OF THE SOUL

We maintain stress free environment for better learning conditions

ENRICHMENT OF THE INBORN TALENTS

Our students explore to create a foresight of the potential and we enable them to strengthen them. Learning beyond classroom promotes co-curricular activities that refines knowledge. Exposure creates inquisitiveness among the young minds to explore.

Co-curricular Activities are not only meant to create interest among the beginners but develop a finesse among the girls when they embark on it.

REFLECT A BALANCED PERSONALITY

We believe in overall development of an individual.
Strength lies in creating a balance between emotional, physical and intelligent quotients.

GLOBAL PERSPECTIVE

Young hands holding the responsibility of the future world. The participation in Model United Nation conferences creates an awareness towards the International affairs. The tender hands know to care the Environment. The young minds are conscious about their future sustenance and concern.

Reminiscing memory lane 15 years ago, I started the most beautiful and enchanting journey of being a member of Queens family . I have been nurtured with self confidence and deeper expression through my participation in co curricular activities. I will be flagging off my school journey with better skills to deal my future endeavours of life. Roshni Rajani (Head Girl)

GLOBAL PERSPECTIVE

Geographical Boundaries merge during cultural exchange

Student participation creates a window to visualise the bigger canvas of Internationalism .

RESIDENTIAL CAMPUS

You ask and we avail....

We want to make your stay comfortable.

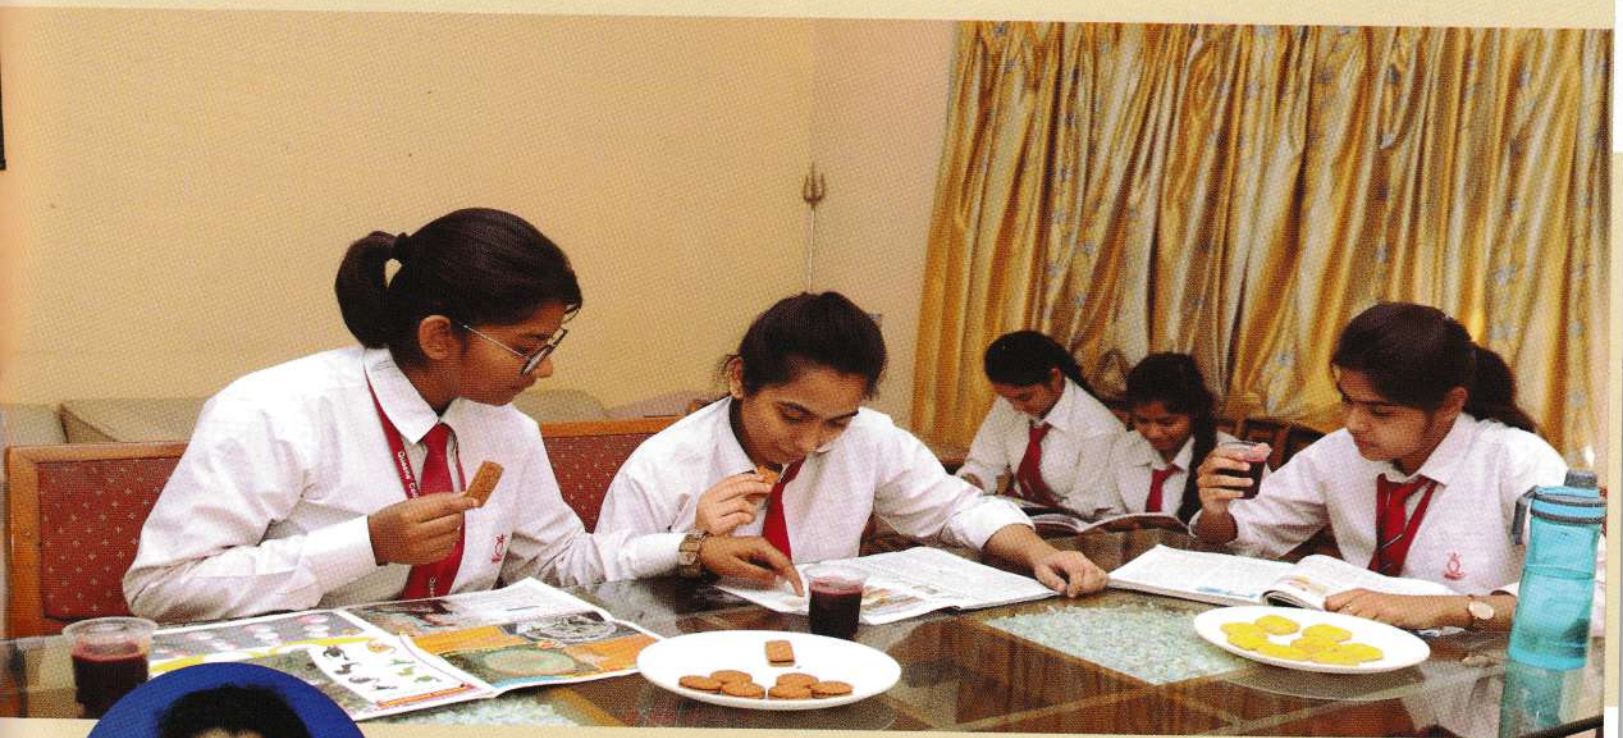

Our students are given the best of facilities and care to shape their future in the right way and make their moments memorable and fun always.

We are sensitive to not only the physical infrastructure but we are deeply concerned for the emotional aspects of the growing students.

Our students are looked after in a way that can make them feel stress free. They live in a bountiful world of pleasure and contentment.

The jovial and ecstatic experience of my hostel life has provided me an opportunity to step out of my comfort zone and further explore my hidden potentials.
